Metro's Marketing Guru DAN MOTOLA

Last June Dan Motola joined Metro Interactive as Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Motola had ten years of previous sales experience with several of the top companies in the business. Obviously, one of his major goals is to increase sales to suit the ever-changing adult business and to maximize the utilization of the company's massive content library to improve supplementary revenues. The company currently offers content for all platforms worldwide, and Motola is also working on developing and marketing new product lines to even further diversify their offerings. We'd like to thank Dan and Metro Interactive for making this interview possible.

UC: Dan, how long have you been working in the adult field?

DM: I have been working in the industry for a total of ten years.

UC: What are your main responsibilities at Metro?

DM: I am the VP of Sales and Marketing. My responsibility is to build strong relationships with distributors, store chains, and webmasters in an effort to increase sales. In addition, we are continuously working on finding new ways of delivering our product worldwide!

UC: With DVD sales diminishing, what advice can you give retailers?

DM: The "key" is to utilize all aspects of advertising. It's critical to brand and maintain the quality of your product, not the quantity.

UC: What are the key factors in making an adult studio successful?

DM: First and foremost, you have to have hot new content, preserve good relationships with performers, and insist on running every aspect of the business with integrity. Second, you must provide a quality finished product and third, provide strong customer service.

UC: What are the most important lessons you've learned in this industry?

DM: Customer service is definitely a priority. One must also be aware of consumer demands and always be proactive.

UC: What direction do you think the industry will take in the next five years? Do you foresee any major changes?

DM: I do think that the interactive capability between the consumer and the content will advance tremendously.

UC: What have you personally done to help the fight against the unjust prosecution of this industry?

DM: Educate the uneducated!

UC: What would you change about this industry if you could?

DM: I would really like to see the online capabilities of free porn access eliminated.

UC: What major projects are in the works at this time?

DM: Our priority at the moment is the Internet (live web cam, live chats, niche sites, and upcoming productions, such as The Jeffersons and Azzfest 7), as well as duplicating our DVD presence to the Internet market.

UC: What are your goals for the company in the coming year?

DM: Our ultimate goal is to continue to produce high-end features and top-quality ethnic product. We also look forward to increasing revenue by becoming more interactive with the end user.

UC: Any other details you'd like to share?

DM: It's an honor to work at Metro, a company that has been the cornerstone in the adult industry for over 40 years. We pride ourselves on having one of the best support staffs in the industry. Please support adult product by buying it!
